

JOSH PRINCE

Commonwealth Court of Pennsylvania for Justice

Bobby Montgomery
Sullivan County Sheriff

“Josh Prince is an ardent supporter of law enforcement across Pennsylvania and defender of our constitutional and civil rights. I wholly endorse Josh Prince for the Commonwealth Court.”

We need judges, such as Josh, who are extremely well versed in the law and who will uphold the law as written. It is because Josh has a proven track record of fighting for the rule of law that he has received support from voters, elected officials, and law enforcement officers from across the Commonwealth. And I am honored to join the growing list of individuals and organizations that have endorsed Josh.”

Prince had this to say about the endorsement:

“Sheriff Montgomery recognizes a devoted arbiter of the law because he has dedicated a lifetime to utilizing it in a manner which has saved lives and helped maintain civil order. Before Sheriff Montgomery was elected twice by the people of Sullivan County, he served 28 years as a 9-1-1 dispatcher activating life-rescuing services that sometimes resulted from infractions of the law. His swift acuity in assisting those in need was contingent upon a deep understanding of the law, and his role in upholding it.

I’m deeply honored to receive Sheriff Montgomery’s endorsement, and will endeavor to uphold the law for Pennsylvanians with the same urgency he offered on the front line in law enforcement.”
