

JOSH PRINCE

Commonwealth Court of Pennsylvania for Justice

Brian Shank
Erie County Chairman

“As Erie County Council chairman, I fully endorse Joshua Prince for the Commonwealth Court of Pennsylvania.”

Prince had this to say about the endorsement:

“Pennsylvanians are blessed to have passionate civic servants such as Chairman Shank, whose military service, and subsequent career as a police officer, are strong roots that guide his advocacy for law enforcement, which results in strong partnerships collaborating to promote safety in the community he serves.

I am delighted to have Chairman Shank’s endorsement, and look forward to embodying the same passion in applying my experience as a civil rights attorney to the honor of upholding the Constitutional rights of Pennsylvanians as a Commonwealth Court Judge.”
