

JOSH PRINCE

Commonwealth Court of Pennsylvania for Justice

Eric Foy
Venango County Sheriff

“Joshua Prince is my go-to attorney for independent analysis of the firearm laws. I fully support Josh for Commonwealth Court.”

Prince had this to say about the endorsement:

“Sheriff Foy is the type of leader who goes above and beyond the call of duty to ensure that his law enforcement team is equipped to serve their community by offering educational opportunities that empower a lawful and skilled exercise of Constitutional liberties, launching programs to protect special populations, providing resources to those in need, and proactively securing our schools.

I am deeply honored to have Sheriff Foy’s endorsement, and it has been a privilege to serve him in his endeavor to dutifully enforce the law. The function of government is to serve its citizenry by empowering the lawful exercise of rights in accordance with our social contract, the U.S. Constitution. I’m eager to follow Sheriff Foy’s example of working as a servant leader by safeguarding each Pennsylvanian’s Constitutional right to pursue justice as the next Commonwealth Court Judge.”
